

MSLA Resources for Remote Learning

First, an important consideration from Kristin Ziemke...

@KristinZiemke

*Hey teacher friends-don't feel pressure to use all the "new free tools" you may be seeing online. Stick to 2 or 3 things you know & feel comfortable with and go from there. You have time to learn & grow as time goes on. Start small, keep it simple, you g@this.
#COVID19*

All Grades:

What Considerations Should We Keep in Mind for Distance Learning?

Zoom CEO Giving K-12 Schools Videoconferencing Tools for Free

Distance Learning Tips from One Teacher to Another

Amazing Educational Resources \(Huge list; it takes a while to load\)

Picture Book Videos

EdTech Free Subscriptions for Closed Schools

Facebook Group--Educator Temporary School Closure for Online Learning

Scholastic Learn at Home

Virtual Field Trips

Authors Everywhere!

Draw Every Day with JJK: Intro - ep. 1

Virtual Field Trips (from Discovery Education)

Grades PreK-2

Kate Messner Collection

Picture Books Read Aloud Videos for Lesson Use

Grades 3-5

Newsela-all resources are currently free

Kate Messner Collection

Grades 6-12

Newsela-all resources are currently free

Digital Writing, Digital Teaching - Troy Hicks

Teaching in the Context of COVID 19

Kelly Gallagher

Remote Learning for Educators

Digital Writing, Digital Teaching – Integrating New Literacies into the Teaching of Writing