

Literacy Voices Journal

“Reading is fundamental!” -R. Paul

Call for Manuscript Proposals: Literacy Voices Journal

The Literacy Voices Journal of the Montana State Literacy Association is pleased to announce a call for manuscript proposals for the 2025 edition. This call for proposals focuses on early literacy and reading foundations.

Literacy Voices invites educators, researchers, and literacy advocates to submit manuscripts that explore the foundations of reading. We are particularly interested in articles that highlight effective teaching practices, innovative approaches, and evidence-based strategies that have been successful in the classroom. All literacy-themed articles are welcome.

Submission Guidelines:

- Manuscripts should be between 3,000-4,000 words in length.
- Please format your submission in APA style.
- The submission deadline is May 15, 2025.
- Email your submission in a Word document or PDF to the editor at kari.dahle@msubillings.edu

We encourage submissions from educators at all levels. Your insights and experiences are invaluable in advancing the field of literacy education.